FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 10, 1878.

AN AMERICAN Ship Eurned at Sea.

The State Department learns from the U. S. consultated to the loss by fire at sea of the bark of March last. The vessel was on her way from Liverpool to Bombay with a cargo of coal. In lautude 2 deg. 13 min. n., longitude 25 deg. w., moke was discovered coming out of the hat hways. The hatches were fastened and The Season w., moke was discovered coming out of the hat hways. The hatches were fastened and signals of distress were displayed. The fire soon signals of distress were displayed. The fire soon increased beyond control, the cabin floor becoming very hot. At five o'clock in the atternoon a French steamer, believed to be the Orenoque, passed close under the stern of the burning sh p, but paid no attention to her signals of distress and repeated hails for aid. No smoke or flowes were, h wever, as yet visible from her decks. The steamer's deck was covered with p - sergers waving their hats and haudkerchiefs as she passed. A sailing vessel coming in sight was signaled, blue lights were burned and a box put off to her, when she bore down and re scued the crew. She proved to be the ship Charles Cotesworth, of Liverpool, F. Browse, master. Soon after midnight the flames began to burst out of the batchways of the Russell, and at 1:30 a. m. she was abandoned. The officers and crew were treated by Captain Browse with the greatest kindness, and taken to Cork, whence they were sent by the consul to Liverpool for shioment to the United States.
